Tai Chi - Chi Kung also written Qi Gong, is an easy to follow & learn relaxation exercise.

Tai Chi - Chi Kung can be considered the Grand Parent of Tai Chi and is a lot easier than Tai chi exercises.

It's history dates back over 2000 years in China.

The classes are suitable for all ages High school students to Grandparents can do it together.

Allan Kelson also conducts special classes in schools with his "Tai Chi for Schools" program which incorporates Chi Kung and Tai Chi.

The exercises are done in a standing posture.

No sitting on lying on the floor in these exercise classes.

However for those with leg or back problems can sit on a chair if required.

The Qi Gong Shibashi set of Tai Chi -Chi Kung was first introduced to South Australia in 1988 by Master Allan Kelson who learned this set in China.

Allan who is an international instructor, has taught this set & many others around the world. One of his international students is Frida Lyngstad from the world famous music group ABBA!

ADELAIDE'S MIDWEEK NEWS REVIEW

CELEBRITY

ABBA's Frida follows our Master Allan into chi kung

FRIDA has dropped the jangly moves that went with the "Ring, Ring" video clip and the loose swaying of "Fernando" for the controlled, choreographed movements of chi kung - taught by Adelaide Master Allan Kelson.

The woman with the strong eye teeth and red hair from Swedish '70s sensation ABBA, took up chi kung (related to tai chi) about a year ago.

Mr Kelson, who runs the Tai Chi and Chi Kung Institute, in Adelaide, was asked to go to Sweden by a fellow chi kung expert and found himself giving Frida and her husband Prince Russo Reuss private lessons in their home.

Notoriously reclusive, Frida has now asked Mr Kelson to go back to Sweden for another stint of intensive training.

Adelaide's Master Allan Kelson (at left) with former ABBA singer Frida, and (above) Mr Kelson leads Frida and other members of a chi kung session during his visit to Sweden.

Chi Kung and tai chi are a form of slow, choreographed movement, meant to bring health and wellbeing by focusing the "chi" or energy in the body.

They are practised early in the morning by millions of people in China.

Tai Chi has its origins in martial arts and is about 350 years old and chi kung is closer to yoga and goes back 2000 years, Mr Kelson says.

Mr Kelson took up chi kung and tai chi 21 years ago after a football accident injured his back.

He is now a member of the World Academic Society of Qigong (Chi Kung) in China.
